

17 May 2024

Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 11 Leavers' Day and Study Leave - May 2024

Firstly, thank you for your continued support at this pivotal time in your child's education - they have demonstrated maturity, positivity, and a dedication to their studies since the exams started last week and please do keep congratulating them for their hard work and commitment.

Leavers' Day - Friday 24 May 8.45am - 12.40pm

Friday 24 May is the last day of timetabled lessons before study leave begins on Monday 3 June (note: there is a French exam on the morning of 24 May). On Friday 24 May we will have a BBQ and ice cream van for all students to celebrate their hard work and success followed by a leavers' assembly, with me and their Heads of House, in the school hall to wish them goodbye and good luck on behalf of the school. For this day only, Year 11 students may wear a white shirt or polo shirt with their uniform so they can have this signed. In recent years, many students have chosen to decorate these shirts and we are happy for them to do this again, however, if a student arrives with any profanities, offensive material or inappropriate images on their shirt, they will have to change into a polo shirt provided by the school. The timings for Leavers Day are as follows:

- Form time + periods 1 and 2 as normal / French Writing GCSE
 - 10.50am - 11.30am BBQ and ice cream in The Quad
 - 11.40am - 12.40pm Leavers Celebration Assembly
 - 12.40pm - Early Finish - Year 11 leave the school site;
- Please make your own travel arrangements for your child

From Monday 3 June onwards, students are only required in school when they have an exam. Please note that school buses will continue to run at the normal times so students will be responsible for making their own way to and from school outside of these times. During study leave, students should be revising throughout the school day, each day. Once they are officially on study leave, Year 11 students may wear their own clothes when they come into school to sit their exams and must ensure that they have their ID cards with them at all times. They will need these when they arrive at the front reception area and they must be clearly displayed on exam desks in their exam venue.

Study Leave advice and information

Now the exams have started many students will be eager to make the most of the time to revise. I am sure that many of you will also be keen to support them as well as possible. I would suggest that students get up at their normal time (as if for school) and then commit to 2-3 hours of revision each day.

My advice for effective, sustainable revision:

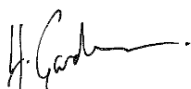

- Start early. If they do this, they will still have the late morning, afternoon and evening to unwind, see friends and enjoy their half term break.
- Get fully focused. Revision works best when it is fully focused; no distractions such as a mobile phone, music, TV, computer etc. Put these distractions in a different room.
- Be prepared. All materials and resources should be ready before the timer starts so that your revision time is solid, productive work.
- Chunk revision slots. Break your revision into 40-minute slots (roughly) and have a short break in-between each slot.
- Do practice questions every day.
- Revise downstairs. If this is possible, you will find that there are fewer distractions and you are accountable to others in your house. They will see if you aren't working!
- If you have a desk or dining table to work at, use this.
- Relax and switch off. When you're not revising, do your best to stop thinking about exams. If you've worked hard in the morning, you've earned a rest!

Sign-Out Day - Wednesday 26 June 9.10am - 10.50am

Year 11 students must officially sign out from The Weald and return any equipment borrowed. This will take place in the School Hall on the morning of Wednesday 26 June. Year 11 students will complete a sign-out sheet and return anything they have borrowed from the school, including any chromebooks, library books, music equipment, textbooks or maths equipment, before swapping their completed sign-out sheet for their Prom 2024 ticket. Year 11 must attend Sign-Out Day in order to collect their Prom ticket. If you are away on Wednesday 26th June, please let me know as soon as possible.

As we approach the final weeks of Year 11, I wish all of our students the best of luck and hope that their exams go well.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs H Gardner
Head of Year 11
