

English Content Outline

Y11

Term	Summary of Unit (learning aims, ideas, texts)	Content (terminology, vocab)
Autumn	Tyranny & Treason GCSE English Literature 'Shakespeare Text': Macbeth Whole-text comprehension, contextual knowledge, writing a discursive response, and close textual analysis Mock Examinations GCSE English Language: Revise reading skills for non-fiction texts Revise writing a non-fiction text GCSE English Literature: Revise An Inspector Calls Revise The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll & Mr Hyde Feedback and next steps using centrally produced examiners' report.	- Language Exam Techniques - Command words: select, explain, explore, evaluate, compare - Language & structure terminology - Comparative language - Evaluative language - Non-fiction genres & purposes - Ambitious vocabulary & punctuation - Structures for extended responses - Macbeth exam techniques - Structure for extended responses - Memorised quotations - Context - Themes (ambition, power, supernatural, violence) - impact/effect verbs
Spring	Interleaving of revision primarily for 2nd Assessment Period mock examinations, and then all Language and all Literature topics through a combination of: - Whole cohort workshops targeting year group weaknesses - Carousel workshops targeting one of two/three specific areas of weakness - Centralised resources to be delivered in class targeting areas of weakness across the year group - Revision and troubleshooting activities directed by class teacher to target either class-specific or individual areas for improvement - Feedback on mock examinations using centrally produced examiners' report	Review of all exam techniques, quotations and subject specific terminology for all sections of both Language and Literature exams
Summer	Final push on continuing to revise following the same model as the spring term.	As for Spring term
Homework
RED Revision tasks in A5 dedicated revision exercise books - knowledge tested and checked through 'Do Now' brain dump tasks and retrieval quiz in class

School Webpage

Y11

1st Assessment Period (Nov 2026)

- Language: Full mock exam Paper 1 (Non-fiction)
- Literature: Full mock exam Paper 1 (An Inspector Calls / Jekyll & Hyde)

2nd Assessment Period (Feb 2027)

- Language: Full mock exam Paper 2 (Fiction)
- Literature: Full mock exam Paper 2 (Poetry / Macbeth)

