

Enquiry question	Core lesson aims
How can I set myself up for success?	• Explore important time management skills and revision techniques. • Create a study timetable for the week
How do I know someone is right for me?	• I can articulate my relationship values and apply them in different types of relationships • I understand how a lack of mutual and self-respect will negatively impact on relationships and sexual encounters • I can identify attitudes that support or encourage abuse in relationships or sexual encounters
Why do people open themselves up to risks in relationships?	• To deepen understanding of the concept and role of trust in relationships and sexual encounters • To deepen understanding of issues surrounding the sharing of sexual images
Why do people deliberately make situations worse?	• To identify and manage appropriate and inappropriate conflict behaviours.
What does it mean to be a man?	• To explore the idea of masculinity and issues to do with it.
Why do some drivers take risks?	•
Why do people think they can treat anyone unequally?	• To explore reasons gender inequality happens • To discuss ways of reducing gender inequality
Student finance 101	• To understand how student finance works.
What are my post 18 options	• To explore what options are available for students after leaving the Weald

Work experience preparation	● To be reminded of work experience expectations and sort out placements
How can I maximise my chances at getting work?	● To explore why your digital life matters
How do I make the most of my money?	● To understand banking systems, savings and investments, and credit cards and loans
How do I ensure I am being paid properly?	● To understand what payslips tell you ● To understand how taxation works
How can I keep myself safe?	● To review knowledge of drugs and alcohol ● To explore how to minimise risks when out
How does British politics work?	● To understand how UK politics works ● To understand the left and right of politics
How can I figure out who to vote for?	● To explore how political parties work and what they stand for
How does politics influence and affect me?	● To explore how political systems are influenced.