Course Offering

Please note that we always try our very best to offer the course combination you choose. However, published courses are occasionally subject to change depending on uptake and availability.

Criminal Record

If you have a criminal record a separate letter should be written to the Head of Sixth Form explaining the circumstances and stating that you have made an application. This information will be treated in the strictest of confidence. You will normally be invited to a meeting with the Head of Sixth Form where the aim will be to reach agreement with you over taking your application forward. You will also be given advice on entry to certain career areas where criminal records may be an issue.
