

The homework site is accessed by the students using their school computer login and password. Links to the homework site can be found on the website or the schoolsmartportal (homework.theweald.org.uk). Students will have been shown how to do this during their first ICT lesson.

Once logged in this page will be displayed:

If you would like to receive parental emails ask your child to tick the box displayed below and add your email in the box and click 'Save'.